L'Auditori is Barcelona's latest music venue and is the heart of the city's music scene in the fields of promotion, teaching and research. It is a modern building, designed by the architect Rafael Moneo, with premises covering 42,000 square metres. It is situated near Plaça de les Glòries.

In addition to its modern, stern looking exterior, it is worth mentioning the main entrance hall which features a monumental glass cube, decorated with etched paintings by Pablo Palazuelo. The auditorium acoustics have been painstakingly studied by specialist engineer Higiní Arau.

Opening hours

Ticket office:

Tuesday to Friday: 5pm – 9pm

Saturday: 10am – 1pm and 5pm – 9pm

Sunday: Open an hour before the performance.

Bar service is available inside the building as well as an outdoor cafe (Llanterna) for the duration of the performance.
